Ladies' Aid Society Netted $10.40—Need of Better Roadway—Personal Interests and News Notes.

A pleasant social season was enjoyed at the open meeting of the Ladies' Aid society Wednesday afternoon and evening; $10.40 was realized from the supper which was served from 5 to 8 o'clock and the sale of aprons.

Mrs. Sarah Perkins returned last week from a visit with relatives in Western and Mystic. Her sister, Mrs. Martha Norton, returned from a visit with her for a visit.

Mrs. Hudson Leavenworth, who has been visiting her father, Jonathan Satterlee, returned to her home in Watford on Friday last week.

Considerable interest is being taken in the need of a better roadway through the village by the residents here. As a fifth of the entire taxes of the town are collected from the owners of property west of the M. E. church, the residents of the village consider that it is but an act of justice on the part of the officials of the town to see that the roads in this vicinity are put in better shape.

During the winter months the water and the ice which remains during the most severe weather makes one portion of the roadway between the bridge over the track of the New York, New Haven and Hartford road and the ferry slip anything but pleasant for the residents to travel over.

Raymond Wulf of Norwich, who was spending a short vacation from his studies at the Worcester Polytechnic, was the guest of Mr. and Mrs. N. A. Gales over Monday night.

Samuel E. Holdridge, census enumerator for the town of Ledyard, was attending to his duties in the village on Friday and Saturday of last week.

Mr. and Mrs. Lovell Smith of New Rochelle, N. Y., were guests of Miss Ella Smith on Sunday.

Mr. and Mrs. Curry and Mrs. Jennie McCall of Lebanon attended church in Franklin last Sunday.

C. H. Robinson and Master Arad Robinson were recent Norwich visitors.

C. H. Robinson assisted Frank Greenleaf on Tuesday in repairing the lightning rod on the spire of the Franklin Congregational church.

The Ladies' Home Missionary society met with Mrs. George Starkweather on Thursday of last week with a good number in attendance. The usual line of work was taken up.

BOZRAH

Grange Confers Degrees—Henry Miner Returns from Maine.

Harry L. Lathrop of Uxbridge, Mass., was at his home on Sunday.

Charles Avery, Jr., has purchased an automobile.

At the grange meeting Wednesday evening the third and fourth degrees were conferred upon Willard J. Way. A supper was served; there were 28 present.

There was no school in the first school district this week. The teacher, Mrs. Harry Miner, went to Bethel, Me., to accompany her husband home. He has been there several weeks for the benefit of his health.
